CONSTITUTION

ARTICLE I.

ORGANIZATION AND OBJECT.

1. This Club is a corporation incorporated under the laws of the State of New York by the name NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC CLUB.

2. Its object is to foster, disseminate and give effect to Democratic principles.

ARTICLE II.

MEMBERSHIP.

1. The number of members, exclusive of non-resident members, shall not exceed three thousand. All members who are not non-resident or honorary members shall be embraced in the term resident members where hereinafter used.

2. All persons who were resident, non-resident or honorary members of the unincorporated organization known as The Young Men's Democratic Club of the City of New York, at the time its name was changed to The Democratic Club of the City of New York, and who have not since died or resigned from the membership of the last named Club, and all persons who have since the change aforesaid been elected resident or non-resident members of said last named Club, and have duly qualified as such, are hereby declared to be resident, non-resident and honorary members respectively of The Democratic Club of the City of New York, which shall hereafter consist of such persons, and such others as may hereafter be elected and qualify as members of said Club under the provisions of this Constitution.

3. Any male adult citizen of the United States, who shall be in sympathy with the objects of this Club, may become a resident member upon election by the Board of Governors, and payment of the initiation fee and dues hereinafter prescribed for resident members.

4. Any male adult citizen of the United States not residing within the City of New York, as constituted after January 1, 1898, may become a non-resident member upon election as such by the Board of Governors, and payment of the initiation fee and dues hereinafter prescribed for non-resident members.

5. If payment of initiation fee and dues is not made within thirty days after notice of election shall have been given to the person so elected, or to his proposer or seconder, the election shall be void.

6. Non-resident members shall have all the rights and privileges of resident members, except that they cannot vote or hold office in the Club. They shall be subject to the same liabilities and penalties as resident members, but such exemption on the part of any non-resident member shall cease and he shall become a resident member whenever he shall become a resident of the City of New York. A non-resident member, upon becoming a resident member shall be liable for the dues of the half year then current at the rate prescribed for resident members, but shall be credited on account thereof with whatever sum he shall have paid on account of his dues as non-resident member for the current year. Any non-resident may become a resident member upon the same terms, and upon giving notice to the Secretary that he desires to become such resident member. Any resident member not indebted to the Club, who is or becomes a non-resident within the meaning of this section may upon his request be made a non-resident member by a vote of the Board of Governors; but no reduction in his dues by reason of such non-residence shall be made during the then current half year. No non-resident member shall, however, become a resident member until he shall have paid the difference between the initiation fee of a non-resident and that of a resident member as hereinafter prescribed.

7. Candidates for membership must be proposed by one member and seconded by another, in writing, at least ten days previous to the meeting of the Board of Governors at which they are balloted for, and their names must be posted in the Club House for the same length of time, in the place provided for posting such notices.

8. On the death, resignation or expulsion of a member, all his rights and interests in the Club and its property shall wholly cease and determine, but he shall not thereby be released from any liability to the Club for any dues, assessments, or other indebtedness which may have accrued before he ceased to be a member.

9. Any member wishing to resign shall send his resignation in writing to the Secretary. No member can resign while indebted to the Club

ARTICLE III.

MEETINGS OF THE CLUB.

1. There shall be an Annual Meeting of the Club for the transaction of such business as may come before it, and upon the expiration of terms for the election of Governors, on the first Monday in December in each year, at eight o'clock P. M., notice of which meeting shall be mailed to every member ten days before the date of such meeting. If no quorum be present at the annual meeting the presiding officer may adjourn such meeting for not less than one week, nor more than two weeks therefrom, at which adjourned meeting the same business may be transacted as might have been transacted at the Annual Meeting, and with the like effect as if transacted thereat, but notice of such adjourned meeting shall be mailed to members at least five days before the same shall be held. Special meetings of the Club shall be held whenever the Board of Governors shall deem the same necessary, or whenever at least twenty-five voting members of the Club shall present to the President a written request for the same, specifying the object of the meeting, in which case no other business than that specified in the notice shall be transacted at that meeting. Notices of all Special Meetings shall be mailed to each member at least three days before the same shall be held.

2. All meetings of the Club shall be held at the Club House. No proxy nor representative voting shall be permitted in any case.

ARTICLE IV.

OFFICERS.

There shall be twenty-five Governors, who shall constitute the Board of Governors. The officers of the Club shall be selected from among the Governors, and shall be a President, a First Vice-President, a Second Vice-President, a Secretary, a Corresponding Secretary and a Treasurer, and shall be elected annually by the Board of Governors, on the second Tuesday in December, except as hereinafter provided, to hold office for one year, or until their successors shall have been elected. But the election of a Governor as an officer shall not affect his term as Governor.

ARTICLE V.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

1. At the Annual or adjourned Annual Meeting of the Club to be held in December, 1904, there shall be elected seven Governors who shall hold office for three years, and at each Annual or adjourned Annual Meeting thereafter there shall also be elected seven Governors, who shall hold office for three years. The four additional Governors provided for by the amendment of Article IV. shall be appointed for the year 1907, by the Board of Governors, and their successors, together with the successors of the Governors whose terms shall expire in December, 1907, shall be elected at the Annual Meeting in December, 1907, for a term of three years, and in every third year thereafter the successors of said eleven Governors shall be elected for a term of three years.

2. All elections shall be by ballot, and all Governors shall hold office until their successors shall be elected.

3. Twenty-five voting members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Club.

4. There shall be mailed to each member, except non-resident members, at least ten days before the annual meeting, a statement of the members nominated for Governors, provided such nominations are in writing, signed by not less than ten voting members of the Club, and shall have been handed to the Secretary at least fifteen days before such annual meeting, and it shall be the duty of the Secretary to post all such nominations in the place provided for such purpose in the Club House, and keep the same so posted during the ten days preceding the annual meeting, at which such nominations are to be acted upon. At the opening of each annual meeting or adjourned annual meeting the presiding officer shall appoint three members of the Club as tellers to receive and canvass the votes, and thereupon the poll shall be opened, and be kept open for two hours. The tellers shall receive the ballots of the members, who must vote in person, and on the completion of the canvass they shall certify the result to the presiding officer. The nominees who shall have the highest number of votes shall be declared elected.

5. Non-resident and honorary members are ineligible to hold office in the Club, and no member shall be entitled to vote or hold office who is in arrears for dues.

ARTICLE VI.

BOARD OF GOVERNORS.

1. The government, control and management of all the affairs and property of the Club shall be confided to the Board of Governors. The Board of Governors shall have power to fill any vacancy in their number for the balance of the term in which such vacancy occurs. The Board shall finally determine any question arising under this Constitution.

2. Any member of the Board of Governors who shall absent himself from three consecutive regular meetings of the Board, unless he shall have previously obtained permission so to do from the Board, or shall present at the next regular meeting an excuse for his absence, satisfactory to the members of the Board present, shall be deemed to have resigned and his office as Governor shall thereupon become vacant.

3. The President shall have power to appoint (and at any time remove and replace the same or any member or members thereof) a House Committee to be composed of not less than three members of the Club, any of whom may or may not be members of said Board of Governors, the duty of which Committee shall be, subject to the direction and control of the Board of Governors, to direct and manage the affairs of the Club House, and to receive and act upon complaints and suggestions of members, reporting monthly, or oftener if required, to the Board. Said Committee shall have the general charge of said Club House and its servants, with authority to expend such sums in respect to the same as may be voted therefor by the Board of Governors. If at any time the indebtedness of any member of the Club upon the books of the House Committee shall amount to twenty-five dollars such member shall receive no further credit until such indebtedness has been paid and the House Committee shall notify him to that effect. If the accounts of the House Committee on the first of any month shall show an indebtedness to the Club on the part of any member, it shall be the duty of the House Committee to render to him a bill thereof, and such member shall be required to pay the same within ten days thereafter. The name of any member failing to pay his indebtedness within ten days after the bill thereof shall have been rendered to him as above provided shall be conspicuously posted in the Club House at the expiration of said ten days, and notice thereof mailed to such member by the House Committee. The name of any member in arrears, and who shall have failed for the space of five days after such posting to pay his said indebtedness, shall be reported by the House Committee to the Board of Governors at the next meeting of the latter thereafter. Such member may thereupon by vote of such Board be suspended from the privileges of the Club House for such time as the said Board shall specify, and it shall also have power whenever it shall see fit, to fix by vote and notify such member of a limit of time within which he shall be required to pay such indebtedness or subject himself in default thereof to be dropped from the roll of membership, and any such member who shall have failed to pay his said indebtedness within the time so limited after being notified as above provided shall be deemed to have withdrawn from the Club and his name may be dropped from the roll thereof by the vote of such Board.

4. The Board of Governors shall also have power to prescribe rules for the admission of strangers; to make rules for the use of the Club House by the members, and for their conduct in the Club House; to fix penalties for violation of the rules, and to enforce or remit the same; to call special meetings of the Club to consider any specific subject or subjects; to make rules for their own government, and to fix and enforce penalties for the violation of such rules; to create such sub-committees from time to time as it may deem advisable, which sub-committees shall be appointed by the President wholly or partly from members of the Club who shall not be members of the Board of Governors, as such Board shall deem advisable.

5. Said Board of Governors shall also have power to censure, suspend, drop or expel any member for a violation of the Constitution or a rule, or for any conduct not in violation of the Constitution or a rule which in the opinion of such Board, is improper and prejudicial to the welfare or reputation of the Club; but no member shall be censured, suspended or expelled unless by the affirmative vote by ballot of two-thirds of all the Governors, nor without written notice of the charge against him and of the time when he can submit to the Board a written answer to such charge. Any charge against a membe shall be inquired into in such manner as the Board of Governors may direct, and the action of the Board of Governors shall be final.

6. All elections of resident and non-resident members of the Club shall be by the Board of Governors, and by ballot, three adverse ballots excluding, and all votes, conversations and debates in the Board on the admission of a candidate or on the censure, suspension or expulsion of a member shall be held by the Governors in secrecy.

7. A vote upon the admission of a proposed member, or upon the censure, suspension or expulsion of a member shall, on the motion of any Governor, be reconsidered at the same meeting at which said vote was passed, and a second ballot shall be taken; but no such vote can be reconsidered, modified or rescinded at any subsequent meeting, unless notice in writing shall have been sent to each Governor at least ten days before the meeting that such vote will be then brought up for reconsideration.

8. A candidate rejected at one meeting shall not, within six months thereafter, be again balloted for. Candidates whose names shall have been laid over at two successive meetings shall not be balloted for until the candidates whose names succeeded theirs on the list shall have been elected or rejected.

9. The Board of Governors shall meet once a month, except during the months of July and August; but special meetings of the Board may be called on two days' notice by order of the President, or in his absence or refusal to act by a Vice-President. At least seven members of the Board shall be present to constitute a quorum at any of its meetings.

ARTICLE VII.

DUTIES OF OFFICERS.

1. The President, or, in his absence, the First Vice-President, or in his absence the Second Vice-President, shall preside at all meetings of the Club and of the Board of Governors, but in their absence a meeting of the Club or of the Board of Governors may elect a presiding officer for such meeting.

2. The Treasurer shall keep the accounts of the Club and report thereon monthly to the Board of Governors, the Secretary shall keep the records of the Club, and the Corresponding Secretary shall attend to all correspondence. The officers shall also have such other powers and duties as may from time to time be prescribed by the Club or by the Board of Governors.

ARTICLE VIII.

FEES AND DUES.

The initiation fee for resident members shall be one hundred dollars, and for non-resident members twenty-five dollars, and for the sons of members who are of the age of twenty-one years no initiation fee shall be charged. The half yearly dues of resident members shall be twenty-five dollars, payable in advance on the first day of January and July in each year. The dues of non-resident members shall be twenty dollars, payable annually on the first day of January in each year.

ARTICLE IX.

PENALTIES.

Any member who shall fail to pay his dues for two months, after the same shall become payable as herein prescribed, in any year, shall cease to be a member, without any action of the Club or of the Board of Governors, but said Board may in its discretion, at any time within ten months thereafter, reinstate such member upon his paying all his arrears of dues and other indebtedness to the Club.

ARTICLE X.

NOTICES.

A member may inscribe in a book to be kept for that purpose a mail address for notices, and he shall be held to have received any notice when it has been mailed to that address. In the absence of such inscription, any notice may, with like effect, be deposited in the post-office, addressed as the Secretary may think most likely to insure its prompt delivery.

ARTICLE XI.

AMENDMENTS TO THE CONSTITUTION.

Amendments to the Constitution provided the same shall have first been approved by the Board of Governors, may be made at any special meeting called for that purpose by a two-thirds vote in the affirmative, a quorum being present and voting; but no amendment shall be acted on at any meeting unless proposed by the Board of Governors or by a member of the Club, and notice thereof, in writing, given to the Secretary at least fifteen days before the meeting, and the Secretary shall post a copy of such proposed amendment in the Club House for not less than ten days before such meeting, and shall send by mail to each member of the Club a copy thereof not less than five days before such meeting.

ARTICLE XII.

The President, First Vice-President, Second Vice-President, Secretary, Corresponding Secretary, Treasurer and Governors in office on December 3rd, 1901, shall each and all be deemed to be Governors under this Constitution. At their first meeting held in December, 1901, or thereafter, they shall elect from among the members of the Club three persons to fill the three vacancies then existing in the office of Governor under this Constitution, so that the total number of Governors shall be twenty-one as hereinbefore provided. The Governors shall then divide themselves into three classes of seven Governors each; the first class to hold office until the annual meeting of the Club to be held in December, 1904; the second class to hold office until the annual meeting to be held in 1905, and the third class to hold office until the annual meeting in 1906.

Immediately after so dividing themselves into classes, the Governors shall choose from among their number a President, a First Vice-President, a Second Vice-President, a Secretary, a Corresponding Secretary, and a Treasurer, who shall hold office until the second Tuesday of December, 1902, or until their successors shall be elected. The successors to these offices shall be elected annually as hereinbefore provided.
